

Job Description

- Reads and interprets blueprints, including reading and interpreting GA's, flowcharts and spool drawings
- Makes comparison of spool drawings to GA's to assure correctness
- Capable of structural layout
- Works with different types and sizes of materials
- Positions fit pipe
- Safely operates iron worker, overhead cranes, rigging, pipe threading machine, welding machine, tube bending machine, and various pneumatic hand tools
- Assembly of components with some fabrication of equipment needed for the job with minimal supervision
- Decides when spooling where to leave field welds, when to put couplings in pipe, and where to brace pipe on skid
- Works well with other departments on location of tie-in points for instrument and auxiliary pipe
- Promotes and supports safety, production and positive attitude
- Primarily fabricates and assembles welded Stainless Steel piping, tubing, and associated brackets to all drawings provided
- Primarily installs and checks panels and end devices used. Lays out conduits and tubing or whatever is requested by supervisor or superintendent
- Primarily fabricates and/or assembles guards, platforms, and any other structure required
- Safely operates cutting torch and various power and hand tools
- Travel is required
- Must be able to pass criminal background check
- 3 Rivers Services is an eoe
- Send Resume and application to webmaster@3riverssrc.com